Great presentation and made sense
Great presentation, helped me learn about my own presentation skills that I didn't know I was doing wrong

Great presentation, helped me learn about my own presentation skills that I didn't know I was doing wrong

Great speaker, informative

Great tips

Great workshop

Great! Thank you! :) A reference to whether the PPT is available and where would allow me to focus more rather than note take.

Group talks and sharing together made it fun and helpful to know

Have copies made at each slide to be able give to attitudes

Helpful

Helpful and active that related to our topic

Helpful in providing resources I didnt know about

Helpful, learned a lot

Honestly I'd like it better if we were given something electronic, but that's just me.

I appreciate how kind the instructor was

I appreciated that you gave us practice examples and worked with us

I didn't know I've been doing APA incorrectly and now I know

I enjoyed the use of professors own work

I enjoyed the use of real testimonial from a live professor. Also thought it was interactive.

I enjoyed the workshop, it was helpful

I feel by the time of your 1st hour of college, students should know how to do citations.

I feel confortable enough to see a wmc consultant thank you

I feel much more confident in my speaking abilities

I feel they are very helpful b/c they sit down w you and help step by step

I found the workshop helpful because there were somethings that i did not know we had the resouces to.

I had a better understanding of italicization

I learned a lot and enjoyed the speaker. made things interesting

I like how examples whre showed on how evidences way used. I also liked how it was show being used in dif ways.

I like how it was all prepared in class, the argument

I like how they had multiple examples for the same thing

I like the examples used and how we were shown things relating to us.

I like the participating in it!

I liked how it was introduced to what a lit review is

I liked that you gave examples aside from the slides info

I liked that you went step by step how to fill out the citation and where to find the info

I liked the examples provided as it helped me remember it more.

I liked the exercise.

I liked the method for paraphrasing

I liked the practice speech interactive and fun

I liked the presenters responses to student feedback

I liked the various examples provided .

I liked the worksheet.

I liked the workshop, however, I'd like more examples of evidence being used and even citation.

I love it

I loved the extra websites that were provided

I really enjoyed practicing with different sentences. The workshop helped me and I will use it as a reference in the future

I really found the paraphrasing activity where I was able to do it on my own

I really like how it was involving the class with an activity. Helped make it easier to learn

I really like how she made us present.

I really like it and I felt better after the session.

I really liked being involved and talking, not just staring at a screen

I really liked the presenting on artifact activity because it allowed me to practice in front of an audience

I think she was great, she involved the audience a lot which I liked

I think the presenter did a good job and was animated

I thought Abby did a great job showing how to spot indirect evidence.

I thought it was useful

I thought it was very clear, concise presentation. Very informative, some elements I didn't know before

I thought the workshop was great!

I was able to learn more about citations and being able to do it on my own.

I was great, I stayed engaged and very informative presentation.

I will hold on to this worksheet for future purposes.

I would like to have more availability in writing center

Informative

Informative

Informative info.

Instead of having us work individually, read through the text (aloud) with us and have more of a conversation.

Interesting

It gave me a lot of information I struggled with before

It really helped me wrap my mind around what I wanted to do.

It was educational to help with APA

It was good

It was helpful

It was informative

It was informative to learn about persuasion and evidence, but too abstract and specifically unrelated to the class.

It was repetitive. I have seen this in all my other classes this semester.

It was specific and thorough

It was too fast

It was useful, much needed.

It was very helpful. I was surprised at the options we had available.

It was very informational

It was very informative about the writing process and I feel as though I gained a lot of information.

It was very informative and interactive (awesome)

It was very informative, gave time for students to take notes

It was very nice, liked the (I can not read the next word- Kiana S.) everyone was engaged

It was well prepared, but rather vague and basic

It was well thoughtful the course and did help me know what I am writing

It went really fast

It went the same as every other workshop

It's a great resource and they help in improving your papers

Less time on waiting for student response to questions. Use time to explain with more detail.

Liked the activity even though I am still nervous

Loved it.

None

Our presenter Abigail was articulate and well spoken. I learned alot about lit review

Our speaker did a very good job at keeping the audience engaged

Overall it was more helpful than expected

Presentation was very well presented and it was very entertaining

Pretty much everything was covered

Provided great information! I feel more confident about writing in APA

Provided useful tips and tricks.

Really Helpful

Really clear and informative on the topic

Really effective and simple way to explain the info needed for future assignment

Really helped

Really helpful and full of information

Really learned from it, was a good practice on how to cite.

Really nice practice

She helped to clear up things I still needed a better understanding on. She also kept her audience engaged. the last minute 30 sec - 1 min presentation helped

She was great at giving us information about WMC

She was very patient with all students, and offered clean answers to our questions.

Speaker was convincing

Super helpful and useful for other classes im enrolled in. I appreciate the handout

Super informative, look forward to having more

Thank you Abby, great job, I felt it was very helpful

Thank you for clarifying this subject matter. Very Clear

The examples were a little confusing

The handout should be handed out in the beginning for note taking. Not at the end after notes already written!
Please state clearly what each exercise entails

The instructor was clear and thourogh

The presenter did a good job a explaining how to make slideshows.

The presenter was clear and helpful in demonstrating the usage of commas

The session was amazing provided great context great, especially the stuff about how to slow down and deal with nervousness had some real good information on presentation helpful and easy to understand helpful and short... gets to the point.

helpful tips were given that left me thinking of how to successfully form my presentation

i appreciate it, it was interesting

i felt that it was very informative I also liked that she included our thoughts and what we do instead of just talking to us i liked hearing other peoples tips

i often feel overwhelmed when writing large projects so the portion that had us write out a calendar was particularly helpful i really enjoyed this workshop. I though it was very beneficial

i thought the information will be useful for this class i thought this workshop was helpful

it felt good to talk like that on the 8 pack it was alright, i felt that it was a topic I have gone over a lot in other classes

it was concise

it was enlightening. I think it needed to add in research before it moves more smoothly

it was good

it was great

it was very helpful to see things like the schedule, put into practice it was very informative about the subject matter it was very informative and easy to understand.

liked the useful tips

maybe give more options on what students can talk about on the spot

Great workshop, very helpful
Helpful & awkward
Helps students understand the way of presenting
I am a supporter of what the WMC does for the campus community. However, I felt that the exercise at the end was a waist of time.
I appreciate the statement outlines and discussing my ideas on how to go about it and how to include the program in the statement

I found it difficult to apply the skills to my creative writing piece
I found it useful. It helped me understand more about body language when giving a presentation
I gave me a better idea of her use of APA format
I have a better grasp about presenting than I did before.
I liked doing the exercise
I liked praing up during the idea mapping procces, but would have liked to do it more than twice. This was very helpful, but would want it earlier in the semester
I liked that she said some jokes she had
I liked that we had handouts, and practiced some exercises. Very informative and made me think about what I should be doing in my presentations
I liked the exercise when we stand neutral for 20 seconds. It was a good situation to practice for.
I liked the group work, it was very helpful with feedback on my topic
I love the workshop, as it was clear and concise. In which it fully expanded how to better presentation.
I loved it!
I loved the confidence and the clear message delivered
I really liked the activity where we redesigned slides, it was engaging and gave me ideas on how to revise
I think it would be helpful to have the "cheat sheet" while we are looking at the power point, so we don't feel rushed to write down the examples
I thought the 20 seconds in front of the class was awkward but a great exercise
I thought the presentation was clear and helpful. Presenter was nice!
I thought the presenter did a great job explaining things and interacting with us.
I'd like more detail on parenthetical citations if possible
